

Energy Prices, Climate Crisis

What can we do?

Public meeting and discussion:

We face two big challenges: a changing climate and fast rising energy prices.

There are common solutions to these – including saving energy and using it wisely. The event will discuss how we can do this and what needs to happen in Oxfordshire and across the UK.

Speakers include:

Nick Eyre, Professor of Energy and Climate Policy, University of Oxford - The challenge of saving energy - now and in the future

Cllr Liz Leffman, Leader, Oxfordshire County Council

Adam Scorer, CEO, National Energy Action - Fuel poverty and climate action

Barbara Hammond, CEO, Low Carbon Hub

Oxford City Council

Community First Oxfordshire

15 June 2022, 6-8.30pm

Wesley Memorial Hall, New Inn Hall St., Oxford

Free entry

Reserve your place on our EventBrite page
<https://bit.ly/energyclimateoxon>

